

Last June, Top5 Productions produced a video of my daughter's wedding and reception. Christopher Chamberlain's work impressed me very much and I was thrilled that we had chosen to hire him.

When my daughter and her fiancée had set their wedding date for June 28th, we all thought we wouldn't have to worry about bad weather and that the summer heat would not yet have set in...but we were wrong. A rogue storm blew in, an air conditioner issue occurred, and more than ten people that we planned for showed up. In spite of all this, Christopher Chamberlain managed to put together a video that really highlighted all the good things throughout the ceremony and reception. It was wonderful!

Our family was also very impressed by the technical work that went into the video. Top5 blended scenes, music, and managed to work around a wind storm during the outdoor ceremony.

In conclusion, I would recommend Christopher Chamberlain and Top5 Productions to anyone requiring this service. If the need comes up for us again, and my hope is that it will, I plan to call him...no one else.
